

The Coroners Office: a guide to practice and procedure

The book is a unique practical guide, specifically for coroners' officers and staff bringing together practical information from a wide range of sources. It provides a broad and general understanding of the procedures applicable to coroners' officers and staff working in the coroner's office with emphasis on the practical application

£6.50 plus £2.50 p&p

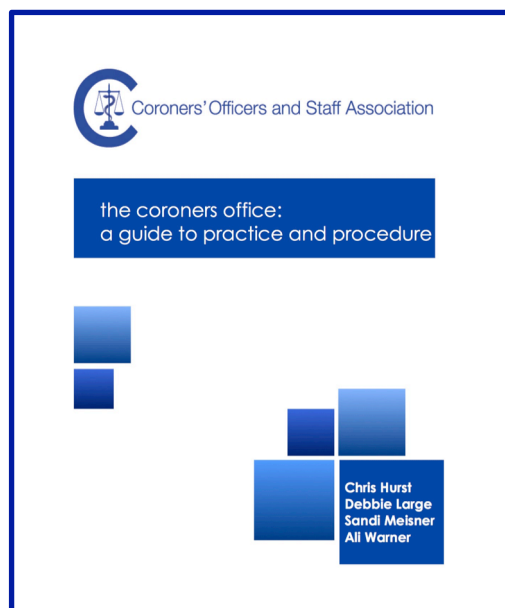

COASA members: 1 x free or discounted copy per member

Full, Associate and Retired: Free of charge

Affiliate £4.50; Student and Overseas members £6.75 (including delivery)

CONTENTS

- The Coroner Service
- Communication
- Equality and Diversity
- Jurisdiction
- Identification
- Decisions and Outcomes
- Post-mortem Examination
- Organs and Tissue
- Disposal
- Inquests
- Juries
- Deaths Abroad
- Investigations
- Mass Fatalities
- Treasure
- Bibliography

Order Form

Name
Address
			Postcode
	COASA member	Yes / No	Member no
Category
Full, Associate and Retired: 1 copy FoC; Affiliate £4.50 inc p&p; Student and Overseas £6.75 inc p&p
Number of copies		@ £6.50 + £2.50 p&p
Free or discounted copy		@
		TOTAL DUE
Please make cheque payable to: Coroners' Officers and Staff Association Send with payment to: COASA, 115 Charles Drive, Cuxton, Rochester, ME2 1DU			